JOINT PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, so great was the faith of our Founding Fathers, and so firm was their belief in the need for God's blessing upon their bold experiment in self-government, that they frequently turned to Him in prayer both as individuals and as a community; and

WHEREAS, the first act of the Continental Congress, the same body that declared America's independence was a prayer. And today, we will do well to continue placing in God's hands our hopes and concerns for our families, our servicemen and women, our communities and our nation; and

WHEREAS, on this National Day of Prayer, observed more than 200 years after the Continental Congress asked for God's blessing upon our young country, our prayers continue to have no better objective than the safety, well-being, protection and prosperity of our Nation; and

WHEREAS, Thomas Jefferson and other Founders believed that the God who gives us life gives us liberty as well, and if the American people are to keep a truly free and democratic government, they must acknowledge their dependence on His mercy and guidance; and

WHEREAS, we ask that our fellow Americans join with us in prayer for our Nation, seeking His blessings for guidance, grace and protection as we meet the challenges of each new day;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, Kevin Cotton, Mayor of the City of Madisonville, Kentucky, and Jack Whitfield, Judge Executive of Hopkins County, Kentucky, hereby proclaim May 6, 2021, as:

“NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER”

and invite our community to join together in worship and prayer for the renewal of our Nation's moral heritage and for God's blessings upon each of us.

Presented on this 6th day of May, 2021.

Kevin Cotton
Mayor of Madisonville

Jack Whitfield
Hopkins County Judge/Executive
