CITY OF MADISONVILLE

JOINT PROCLAMATION

Whereas, cancer is a disease that impacts the lives of countless individuals and families, posing significant physical, emotional, and financial challenges; and

Whereas, the City of Madisonville and Hopkins County recognize the strength, resilience, and bravery of those who have been diagnosed with cancer and have valiantly fought against it; and

Whereas, June marks National Cancer Survivors Month, a time to honor and celebrate the remarkable journeys of cancer survivors, acknowledging their unwavering determination to overcome adversity; and

Whereas, it is crucial to raise awareness about cancer prevention, early detection, and treatment options, as well as to support ongoing research endeavors aimed at finding effective treatments and ultimately, a cure for all types of cancer; and

Whereas, we acknowledge that the title of "survivor" begins at the moment of diagnosis, encompassing the challenges faced, the treatments endured, and the hope sustained throughout the journey towards recovery;

Now, therefore, we, Kevin Cotton, Mayor of the City of Madisonville, and Jack Whitfield, Jr., Hopkins County Judge Executive, do hereby proclaim the month of June as Cancer Survivors Month in Madisonville and Hopkins County.

During this month of recognition, we commend and honor all cancer survivors for their courage, resilience, and perseverance in the face of adversity. We stand in solidarity with them, their families, and caregivers, offering our steadfast support and encouragement.

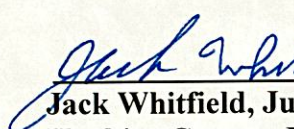

As we observe Cancer Survivors Month, let us also acknowledge the unique challenges faced by those in western Kentucky. Did you know that in our community, lung cancer is the most commonly diagnosed cancer, followed by breast cancer and colorectal cancer? These facts underscore the importance of promoting cancer awareness, early detection, and access to quality care in our community.

We call upon all residents to join us in raising awareness, fostering education, and advocating for greater resources to support individuals and families affected by cancer. Together, we can make a meaningful difference and provide hope to those impacted by this disease.

Signed this 3rd day of June, in the year of our Lord two thousand twenty-four.

Kevin Cotton, Mayor
City of Madisonville

Jack Whitfield, Judge Executive
Hopkins County, Kentucky
